

REMARKS

This paper responds to the Office Action dated December 21, 2007.

Are the first caller and second caller the same or different?

The Examiner asks, in claims 1 and 10, whether the first caller and the second caller are the same or different.

Claims 1 and 10 have each been amended to explicitly name the first caller as “first caller” and the second caller as “second caller”.

Claims 20 and 24 have been added to cover the situation where the first and second caller are the same.

Claims 21 and 25 have been added to cover the situation where the first and second caller are different.

Similar changes have been made to claims 3 and 12 to explicitly name the third caller as “third caller”.

Claims 22-23 and 26-27 have been added to cover the situations where the third caller is the same as, or different from, the second caller.

Are the first and second telephone calls the same or different?

The Examiner asks, in claims 5 and 14, whether the first telephone call and second telephone call are the same or different.

Claims 5 and 14 have each been amended to make clear they are different.

Claims 7 and 16 have each been amended to make clear that the third call is different from the second call.

It is suggested that all of the claims are now allowable.

Respectfully submitted,
